Energy and Environmental Affairs Secretary to Release Map Listing
Outdoor Recreation Locations across Massachusetts
State Fish and Wildlife instructors will hold free fishing clinic

WHAT: Ian Bowles, Secretary of Energy and Environmental Affairs (EEA), will release the Massachusetts Outdoor Recreation Map, a directory of what the state has to offer in outdoor attractions and activities. As part of Governor Patrick's dedication to enhancing local tourism, the informational guide is a great resource and tool for visitors as well as residents. The guide features outdoor safety tips, outdoor ethics and helpful information such as locations of state parks, forests, reservations, beaches, and wildlife areas. The updated map is a collaboration between two EEA agencies: the Department of Fish and Game (DFG) and Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR). DFG's Division of Fisheries and Wildlife will offer a free fishing clinic after the press conference.

WHO: Energy and Environmental Affairs Secretary Ian Bowles
Department of Fish and Game Commissioner Mary Griffin
DCR Director of State Parks Priscilla Geigis
Local legislators

WHEN: Tuesday July 1, 2008 Time: 11:30 a.m.

The Fishing Clinic begins immediately after the press conference, followed by arts and crafts for the entire family.

WHERE: Walden Pond State Reservation – at the boat ramp
